

You took all of the good smells the soft places, light, and all pleasant sensation

I am left, marveling at existence, every day
The foundationless continuum

To myself,
I am a spectacle of biology
I am a headless chicken I see nothing and seek nothing as I wander from each to each

It's astonishing, how completely the world has dulled

It is a series of projected images

Time has abandoned me

The wind moves the tree branches, but I can't feel it on my face

I am still alive

But so hollow,
I could cave at any time and I'm amazed, watching my hands and feet moving

Where is the will?
Who's that, directing?
Who am I?
I am ____'s guy
I am dead
No!

I am still alive

Do I hang on until the end?
When?

Is this bad?
Am I suffering?
I am nothing

Who is that, moving?!
It's me!

I am orbiting on and on for eternity

What an amusing thing

What a pitiful being

I am a pendulum!
Forever swinging

Most reliable,
always up in the morning!
 There is none!

I feel your curls in my fingers
I hear you laugh in the silence

Thank god you made it out alive!
But what am I?

What is this place I'm in?
This world without you

Everything strange, nothing new

How rude!

Walking out the door without making me no more

Infinite silence

The beauty of the cold machine
I am a ghost

I am still alive

I can't let go of your smile or kissing your cheeks

It's silly to throw away your favorite things!

Imagine if I had been yours!

The learned all tell me I'm deserving,
now

They're smarter than you

Why I did this, I wish I knew

I do!
We turned a valveless spring to oil

I am still alive

I would've burned them all

They're still here but we could've had everything something one thing the thing

Freedom!

How wonderful, to be free of all good of vibrations of life

I am still alive

I burned them anyway but I couldn't feel the heat

I'm letting them die,
now
Out of acute curiosity

To Thank Thee, Living Self for every variant evangelist

All but the good

Crown me king!

I ask my heart why it is still beating

Chance made me a beautiful being

Impressively, it continues

I am still alive

I scrape every obscure value together (It needed done)
but you aren't looking

Fuck this

I am still alive

How, why?

OPTIMAL RESPIRATORY SYSTEM FUNCTION

What if I died?

Is it release,
or just another lie?

I can't reach the other way out (What a pitiful boy)

Ha!

An ironic maze, entered

Come find me when the oxygen's about to run out

Take the gun, and help me please please!
 please

I am still alive

You can't do this!

You can't leave me!

Look at your ledger, brat!

See who you owe!

 (Where is __?)
You aren't she

Can you help me?

I am still alive

Worthless waste of matter!

Misuse of human life

Stop breathing!

Choke me

I am still alive

Half-assed self-destruct

Samaritan with a knife

Stop the images

I think they're hurting me we?

First kiss hand held Spring rain

Eye contact

Life lived

It's the end

I am still alive

Lips
Forehead kiss

Sentinel song

PREFERENCE

I am still alive

Never again

Pain is a disease

Pick one tree, plant straight beans

Breathe

Steady

Squeeze

I am still alive
